Congress Overview

PMI Global Congress 2010—EMEA is a two and a half-day professional development event, hosted by Project Management Institute (PMI). It provides an opportunity for professionals across all industries to exchange ideas on today's project challenges and emerging trends.

Value that Congress provides to your employees

- Gaining inspiration and ideas

Over 50 educational sessions delivered by experienced presenters allow attendees to select a variety of topics each day that suit their interest and career needs.

- Building your professional network

Attendees can engage with peers and thought leaders to gain insights, and learn about services and solutions from suppliers.

- Fulfilling Continuing Educational Requirements

Participation in Congress educational sessions allows PMI credential holders the opportunity to stay sharp with current project management knowledge, while earning Professional Development Units (PDUs) necessary to maintain their credential.

What value will Congress bring to your organisation?

Top executives report that project management is becoming increasingly important to their companies, and that project managers can improve business performance in any industry.

Congress offers knowledge, exchange of ideas, training and exposure to the most current resources for project management, which can help your projects be more successful.

Thank you for offering your employee the opportunity to attend PMI Global Congress 2010—EMEA.
